

Murder Most Convenient: A Mrs. Xavier Stayton Mystery (Volume 1)

Its the Golden Age of Detective Novels, and Mrs. Xavier Stayton is convinced she can pen the best! Ripping fun at her late husbands family estate turns to tragedy when murder most foul is committed. Once the inspector arrives, motives abound, and Mrs. Xavier finds herself the chief suspect. If she can avoid the gallows, the hopeful author may walk away with a manuscript that is the cats meow; if not, a dastardly killer has committed a perfect frame-up job. Journey with Mrs. Xavier Stayton and her loyal friend, Lucy, from the safety of Holland Park to the perils of Pearce Manor, where a sinister figure awaits them. What do the critics have to say? The best whodunit Ive ever read. -Mrs. Viviane Stayton, the authors mother-in-law. A true masterpiece in the field of mysteries. -Miss Lucy Wallace, close friend and assistant to the author. The woman is a hack. Every word is lie; Im suing her. -Mrs. Joan Stayton, litigant.
