

Tales from the Tail End: Adventures of a Vet in Practice

Misty was ecstatic to see her owner but to the nurses surprise her owner just stood there and said, What have you done with my dogs head? Im sorry, replied the nurse, what do you mean? Shes just been in for spaying. That isnt my dogs head. The rest of it is my dog but youve put a different head on it. On a crisp October morning in 1996, Emma Milne started her first job as a newly qualified vet, a career captured on camera for eleven series of televisions Vets in Practice. Now she tells the full story. We discover the numerous things that can get stuck in an animals stomach, how to stop a cow exploding, and the biggest truth of all that animals are easy to deal with in comparison to their owners. They say that truth is stranger than fiction, and these Tales from the Tail End turn out to be stranger and funnier than you could ever have imagined
